

Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design Seminar

When: Friday, July 17, 2009 10 am – 2:30 pm

Where: UF Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, North End Zone “F” Club
West University Avenue & Gale Lemerand Drive, Gainesville

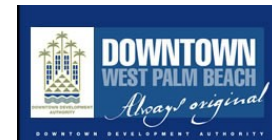

Program: 10 am “Gator” CPTED (aka Special Events Crime Prevention)
University Police Department & University Athletic Association
12 pm On site working lunch (to be provided)
CPTED updates & mini-topics
1 pm WEBINAR: CPTED in Entertainment & Hospitality Districts
West Palm Beach Downtown Development Authority

Cost: 1) $15 payable to FL DOCA for on-site tour & webinar
2) $15 payable online, use discount code CPTED21 & pay by credit card for at webinar only – (viewed from any web enabled computer)
<https://web.memberclicks.com/mc/quickForm/viewForm.do?orgId=rhi&formId=60705>

Send payment for onsite tour/webinar by July 3 to: Susan Ajoc c/o City of St Petersburg
Neighborhood Partnership PO Box 2842 St Petersburg, FL 33731

Program
Partners

This is a unique training opportunity at very low cost. Participants may either: 1) Personally tour one of the largest football stadiums in the nation & participate & network with persons from around the United States in a WEBINAR on CPTED, or 2) Participate in the WEBINAR only.

More Info: Captain Ed Book, Gainesville Police Department
bookea@cityofgainesville.org Phone 352.339.5868